Montrose Christian Childhood Center Discipline Policy

“Time-out” means removing a child from whatever is reinforcing a misbehavior. This child is sent to a quiet place where they are removed from the things that are agitating them. It allows the child a chance to calm down.

“Isolation” is used when the intent is to give the child a negative consequence for repeated misbehavior. The child will be placed with one teacher or the director in an area totally removed from the other children. Two teachers must agree that a child needs this consequence.

If more than two isolations occur in one day, a parent will be called and asked to speak with their child or may be asked to remove their child for the remainder of the day. If staff must call a parent twice in one week a conference will be scheduled to discuss further actions. Children who repeatedly have misbehaviors that harm themselves or other children will be withdrawn from the program.

Staff at MCCC strive for a positive climate of discipline in the center. They endeavor to work and communicate closely with the parents in all these matters. MCCC strives to provide children in care with positive guidance strategies.

Field Trip Form/ Emergency Authorization form

Child's Name: _____

Montrose Christian Childhood Center (MCCC) does not plan, participate, or include the children in attendance in any field trips or off-side activities. Under normal circumstances, there will be no need for a child to be off-site with staff.

In emergency situations (evacuations, natural disaster, etc.) it may be necessary to escort a child off the premises for their own safety and protection. In such a case staff would implement the Written Emergency Plan (stated in the Employee Handbook) based on the situation at hand. It would then be possible that your child would leave the premises (either on foot or by vehicle to a nearby location with staff.

In a situation were to arise where staff believes a field trip would be beneficial, each event would require a separate authorization form signed by the parent or guardian for the child to participate. Parents/Guardians would be given no less than 14 days' notice.

By signing the following, you indicate that you understand the policy and procedure of MCCC regarding field trips, and you give MCCC staff permission to escort your child off site only in the case of an emergency.

My child, _____ is enrolled at MCCC. I understand that it is not likely my child will ever leave MCCC premises unless there is an emergency. I authorize the staff of MCCC to escort my child off the premises only in an emergency. I understand that I may be given the opportunity to authorize my child to participate in field trips and that my separate and specified permission is required.
